Recollections

Jonesboro, Arkansas

May 20, 1965

As told me by Delia Griner P'Pool, the daughter of Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner and Robert E. Griner II:

Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner's mother was Martha Baldwin of Amelia Courthouse, Virginia. She was from a prominent Virginia family. Mary Ann's father was Anderson Nunnelly (you said Anderson) (I don't remember his given name.) I had a list of Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner's sisters and brothers. It may be somewhere at home at Forrest City. Several of them lived around and in Hickman county. There were about nine or ten of them. One was Andrew Jackson Nunnelly who married Izaline Nunnalee. I remember great-uncle Jack's tragic end. Another brother of Mary Ann was Lawson Nunnelly. His first wife was a Hall (X). His second wife was Elizabeth (?) (his governess). She was from Ireland. I knew her when I visited at her son's Walter Nunnelly at Vernon. She lived with them. Park Griner Bryan (my sister), and I visited Elise at Cousin Walter's when we were teen-age. I never knew Annie Meeks on the Halls. I was invited to Elise Nunnelly's wedding at Vernon to Mr. Wallace, but was not well enough to go. (Elise died last summer at Centreville). Brother Dan and father W.P. Griner went to the wedding. I was visiting at Centreville. Mary Ann Nunnelly's father gave her a Nunnelly Negro slave girl to keep house for her when she married Robert Evans Griner II. They went to live with Robert E. Griner I and his wife Priscilla Knight (I think).

Will Nunnelly was Cousin Walter's son who lived and died (recently) at Vernon, Tennessee. He would have had the Nunnelly records and probably the Bible you are looking for. I've never seen it. Mama Delia complained often about someone borrowing it (her mother's Bible) to copy records but they never returned it. She mentioned a Sam Nunnelly (her age), but I'm not sure it was Sam-or who Sam was. She said he was riding horseback and just got tired carrying it. Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner had a son named Sam who died young.

Aunt Mary Griner married her cousin Dr. John Nunnelly and they lived at Grey's Bend where I visited her often after she married Dan McDonald. I think she took me to the Nunnelly graveyard there, but at sixteen years I wasn't interested in ancestors, so don't recall who was buried there.

(Tom) Amelia Jones married a nephew of Aunt Lizzie Nunnelly, Walter's mother. His name was Gal Johnson and they lived at Vernon. Amelia lives at Trenton, Tennessee. She would know more about the Nunnelli's than I do. Her address is: Mrs. Gal Johnson, Trenton, Tennessee. She is about eighty-seven years, a widow, and quite feeble. I know almost nothing about the Nunnalee family, only that Uncle Jack Nunnelly married Izaline Nunnalee, and their daughter (Mary or Margaret) married my grandfather John Lawson, who was killed in the Confederate army, 1861-65. I have belonged to two chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Forrest City, on W.P. Griner and Robert E. Griner war record. Mother Maggie Lawson Griner had a big Bible that Aunt Mary McDonald gave her brother W.P. Griner. ~~I think~~ they said her first husband gave it to her. He was Dr. John Nunnelly. When mother Maggie died the family gave it to me and I have it here. I gave it to my son J.E. Griner. Each summer when I would go to Tennessee mother would have me record the family births and deaths. I don't recall one Nunnalee name and the Griner names were only the immediate family. It was in good shape when I gave it to my son, but many things have since been lost from it. Some obituaries were lost and none go further back than W.P. Griner. Mother said she just wanted our immediate family. I don't know who Anderson Nunnelly's father was. There is quite a lot about our family in the "History of Hickman County". I read it at W.P. Griner's, but their things went to the four winds when mother Maggie died. I asked for and got the Bible, that was all. Brother Dan got the clock. The "History of Hickman County" was in Centreville Library, written some time ago by Spence.

I'm glad to hear Edward Nunnalee was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. I did not know his name. Where is he buried? I never knew just where they lived or came from. My grandchildren might want to join the Daughters of the American Revolution. I don't know if a Nunnally or Griner was in that war, though more than likely since both were from Virginia.

A Carl Nunnalee came to see me in Forrest City about ten years ago, looking for a Bible. Mine wasn't the one he wanted but he took notes of mother Maggie's obituary, etc. You probably know more about him than I do, as I'd never heard of him. He was trying to get evidence of Izaline's brother who went to Texas (Honey Grove, I think). His name was William Nunnalee and was immensely wealthy and no direct heirs. He said he would divide with all of us, gave his address as Carl Nunnallee, Memphis, Tennessee. Was to write me developments, I've never had a line from him or any one else about this. He would have every item about Nunnalees. You probably know more about this than I do, as mother Maggie and Cousin Eddie Porter worked on it for a long time and never got a cent. De Neen was the Texas lawyer. I surely could use some extra money. What do you know of it? I've heard mother Delia speak of a "Foster", Maggie's brother John Lawson lived with, after his father John was killed in the war and his mother died. Later on Uncle John Lawson lived at grandmother Griner's for years. Foster's wife may have been a Nunnalee. Mother Maggie spoke of her Aunt Margaret, who she lived with as a child. or Nunnally.

Carl Nunnalee had a young woman with him taking notes. I think she was kin to the Monroe Chandlers who lived near the Griner graveyard, by the railroad trestle in Shipp's Bend.

I hope you've learned something you wanted to know from all this rambling. A Nunnally ex-slave, "Jennie Nunnally", came to see me in Tennessee when I was about sixteen years, but I didn't ask her about our forefathers.

(This material typed by J.E. Griner from manuscript written by Mrs. J.E. Griner, his mother.)

Signed

Be it remembered that on this 31st day of January, A. D., 1905, personally appeared John H. Nunnelee, who being of lawful age and bearing the tongue of good report, makes oath and says that from his own personal knowledge and from information received from family tradition, William Edward Nunnalee, who was the great grandfather of affiant, and who resided at an early day in Craven County, North Carolina; was the father of two sons and one daughter as follows, to-wit: Edward, the eldest, William L., and Mary whose nick-name was "Polly", all of whom were born in Craven County, North Carolina; that there was born to said William Edward Nunnalee several other sons and daughters who died without issue; that Edward the eldest of said sons, on attaining his manhood migrated to the State of Virginia about the year 1822; that William L., the second son, who was of a roving and wayward disposition, went to the State of Alabama; that Edward always kept in touch with others of the family save only the said William L., who the entire family lost trace of and did not learn of his whereabouts until about the year 1864 when James D. L. Nunnelee, nephew of the said William L., learned that his uncle, said William L., was in the city of Mobile, State of Alabama.

Affiant further states that his father, James D. L. Nunnelee, about the year 1874, visited the City of Mobile, Alabama, and learned that his uncle, said William L., was dead, and that his personal effects had been disposed of, and not knowing that he possessed any real estate left without further investigation.

Affiant further states that he has heard his grandmother say the family Bible containing the early record of the Nunelee family showed that the elder William Edward Nunnalee, great grandfather of affiant, spelled his name Nunnalee, and that it appeared from said Bible that all of the children of said William Edward spelled their names Nunnalee; that the first departure from said spelling was when his grandfather, Edward Nunelee, moved from North Carolina to the State of Virginia about the year 1822, thence to Davidson County, Tennessee, about the year 1824, after which time said Edward Nunnelee married Mary A., known as "Polly" Reeves, and that from this union were born sons and daughters as follows: First, a son, Edward Washington Nunnelee; Second, James DeMarcus Lafayette Nunnelee, who signed his name James D. L. Nunnelee; Third, Timothy Jefferson Nunnalee; Fourth, a daughter, Isaline Nunnelee; Fifth, Jane Nunnelee who died without issue. These were all the children of said Edward Nunnelee.

Edward Washington Nunnelee was born in the State of Tennessee and remained there until after his marriage to Margaret Priestly and until about 1870, at which time he moved to the State of Texas. Said Edward Washington Nunnelee was the father of one son, Samuel Edward Nunnelee, who was born about the year 1855, and who was the only surviving child of the said Edward Washington Nunnelee, and who died about four months ago in the City of Austin, and State of Texas, leaving a wife and four sons, Edward, George, Harry and Samuel.

The second son of said Edward Nunnelee, James D. L. Nunnelee, father of affiant, was born in Hickman County, Tennessee, about the year 1830, and remained there until manhood, and was married to Lucy Jane Fowlkes, and from this union were born sons and daughters as follows: Martha Evaline Nunnelee who married Thomas F.

ASSOCIATED WITH FRANK JAMES

Sam H. Nunneley, San Antonio, Texas

I was born in Hickman county, Middle Tennessee, April 3, 1851, and in 1869 I started to Texas. I arrived at Memphis on a train, then the terminus of all roads going west. There I took the steamer, Bismarck, down the Mississippi to the mouth of Red River, and up Red River, to Soda and Caddo Lakes to Jefferson, Texas. I had lots of sport shooting alligators on the trip. From Jefferson I traveled in a freight wagon drawn by eight yoke of oxen to Bowie county. The next year I saddled my horse and pulled out for West Texas, landing at McKinney, Collin county, where I met Townsend Megeath, and we traveled together, slept together and that winter we stayed with Sam Hilderbran, which was an assumed name I learned in after years. Mr. Megeath turned out to be Frank James. Both were good, unassuming gentlemen in every way. It was from this county I made my first trip over the trail with Sneed, Clonch and Gatling. I made one trip with horses to Mississippi and after selling them I went down into Florida, where I remained all winter, then went to New Orleans and Shreveport, and on to San Antonio, and then out to Uvalde, where I went to work helping drive over the trail for Hughes, Nunn, Hood and Birchfield. We had fourteen thousand cattle cut into four herds, and we drove them to Wichita, Kansas. This was in 1875. After all were sold I came back to Texas on the train to Seguin, and there took the stage to San Antonio, and stayed all night at the well-known Menger

Hotel. Next morning I purchased a saddle for $40 and a horse for $16 and rode to Uvalde. There I fell in with a bunch of fellows, eleven in all, and we started horseback to Silver City, New Mexico, a distance of 900 miles. We went there to live but nobody lived there outside of government forts except wild Indians, so we started back to Texas, coming to Fort Stanton, down the Pecos River to Horsehead Crossing, then across the plains ninety-five miles without water to the head waters of the Concho River. There I killed my last buffalo. I spent two weeks with a buffalo hunter there who had killed that season upwards of 5,000 buffaloes for their hides and tongues. He sold the hides to Fort Worth people at six bits to a dollar each.

From Johnson county I drove 125 horses to Arkansas for a Mr. Sparks. I bought beef cattle in the Indian Territory from the Indians for four years, and drove them to the Hot Springs market, then bought cattle in Arkansas to drive to Kansas, but sold them to the chief of the Choctaw Nation, after which I went back to Arkansas and engaged in the mercantile business for awhile. I was in the "run" in Oklahoma, and helped to make a state out of the Territory of Oklahoma. I now live in San Antonio.

THE TANKERSLEY FAMILY

By Mary Tankersley Lewis, San Angelo, Texas

Richard Franklin Tankersley was born February 19, 1828, in Mississippi. Moved to Texas in 1853, stopping for awhile at Round Rock, Williamson county, afterward living in Cherokee county, then in San Saba, then in Brown county, and from there moved to the head of the South Concho River, in Tom Green county, which was not organized until many years later. He served in the Texas Rangers from 1863 to 1865.

About January Kickapoo Indians stopped at Dove Creek. I had at first thought my father had drawn the leader, who had a white cloth and said "me no fight." There were about fifty men and women in the party. They were very friendly and in some days later, five of our horses were strayed off and brought home. On January 10 we were overtaken by a band of Texas Rangers under Captain Gillentine, and I was forced on the ground. I killed and my father took the head of the Comanche. The intention of trading them to John Chisum was to put him on the plains. I had a herd of twenty-five horses in California, being on the way home, two men cut open a saddle bag and the pair of saddle bags were worth dollars in gold, and a mystery. At that time there were no banks and the money we had was
